TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 28, 1860.

To the Public.

THE SENTINEL, having double the circulation in the CITY, and more than treble out of it, of any other paper here, renders it far the cheapest and most desirable medium in Milwaukee for all classes of Advertisements.

EVERY BUSINESS MAN who consults his own interest, will avail himself of the columns of THE DAILY SENTINEL,—especially when he can do so at the same prices charged by other papers, and secure more than double the advantage of circulation.

This is no boast, but EVERY WORD TRUE.

News Digest.

HON. FRANCIS P. BLAIR, JR., JAS. GARDENSHIRE, and several other prominent Republicans, are to stump Missouri during the present campaign, for "Honest Old ABE."

Advices from Pike's Peak mention the discovery of rich silver mines near Tarryall and Breckinridge. The ore assays from $206 to $1700 to the ton. The greatest excitement prevailed, and thousands were leaving the gold mines for the new diggings.

The steamship Nova Scotian passed Farther Point yesterday, with foreign advices of the 18th. The political news by this arrival is unimportant. The Liverpool breadstuffs market is reported firm, with an upward tendency.

Judge DOUGLAS addressed a large meeting at Norfolk, Va., on Saturday.

A fire at Cincinnati yesterday destroyed property valued at $20,000.

Late news from California, per pony express, will be found in our telegraph column.

Republicans Attend!!

This afternoon, at half-past 2 o'clock, a business meeting of the Republicans of the city and County of Milwaukee, is to be held at Head-Quarters in the Albany Block, on Michigan Street, to perfect the organization of the Republican Party in this County. Let all our working Republicans be on hand.

TO NIGHT, at half-past 7 o'clock, a meeting will be held at the Wigwam, on the corner of Fifth and Galena Streets. Our gallant Representative, JOHN F. POTTER; Mr. FRISBY of West Bend, Mr. J. B. D. COGGSWELL, of this city, and other good speakers, will address the meeting.

Turn out, REPUBLICANS, one and all, and come to the gathering!

APPARATUS FOR SUPERHEATING STEAM.—An improved method of arranging and constructing apparatus for superheating steam has been devised, whereby the steam is made to pass through a system of flattened tubes, which are placed in the uptake in such a position as not to interfere with getting at the ends of the boiler tubes for cleaning or renewing them, and so as to offer the least resistance to the heated gases, and give the requisite area for their passage to the chimney, while at the same time the tube is brought well into contact with the heated gases which pass up between them. The tubes are placed in rows, one above the other, and have their ends fixed into steam-boxes, one of which receives the steam direct from the boilers, while the other has communication with the main steam-pipe leading to the engine. The ends of the flattened tubes are left round, and are fixed in the tube-plates of the steam boxes with ferules, in the ordinary way; but as the flattened portion of the tubes will not pass through the round holes in the tube-plates, the plan pursued is to divide the tubes into groups of nine, as near as may be, and make the holes in one of the tube plates for the central tubes of these groups of such a form and size as will readily allow the flattened tubes to pass through them—small flange-plates being then bolted on the plate, with round holes into which the ends of the tubes are fixed in the ordinary way. By this arrangement any one of the surrounding tubes may be taken out and renewed when required, by first removing the central tube of its group with the flange plate on its end, and then withdrawing the defective tube through the central hole made for that purpose.

SPIRITUAL MANIFESTATIONS IN BARTON, WASHINGTON COUNTY.—The people of Barton and West Bend are in a fever of excitement over strange noises which have been heard every night in a house in the former village. The rappings were first heard in a building occupied by the Sisters of Charity as a school house. These rappings were at first faint and at intervals, and did not attract much attention. They have been increasing, however, both in distinctness and frequency, till now the school is about broken up, the Sisters thoroughly frightened, and a regular fever of excitement has taken hold of the people. The strictest scrutiny and investigations have taken place by all sorts of people, and yet the agency of these manifestations remains undiscovered. The house has been thronged by the curious, unbelievers in spiritual manifestations, and yet the raps, loud and hard enough to jar the very building, would continue, doors open suddenly, and slam together without any apparent agency—not even the faintest breath of wind—and other unaccountable things transpire. There is no doubt, from what we can learn from the papers, that this is one of those inexplicable occurrences, of which OWEN has written so lucid a book.

THE ARKANSAS ELECTION.—Col. HINDMAN of Arkansas is re-elected, notwithstanding his own concession, in a dispatch to Washington, that he had been beaten by CYPERT. Later returns have settled the question. Mr. GANTT, also an Administration Democrat, is elected in the other district of Arkansas.

The majority for HENRY W. RECTOR, for Governor, over JOHNSON, (brother of the Senator,) is 3,000. Both the candidates are BRECKINRIDGE men, but JOHNSON had the regular nomination. There is no doubt that the Electoral vote of Arkansas will be given to BRECKINRIDGE and LANE.

JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE TO MAKE A SPEECH.—Hon. J. C. BRECKINRIDGE has written a letter in answer to the invitation of numerous personal friends to make a speech, "for the purpose of publicly vindicating himself from the violent personal assaults made upon him since his nomination for the Presidency at Baltimore." The time fixed is the 5th of September, and the place "near Lexington."

WAUSHARA COUNTY RETURNS.—We find in the Argus the returns of the census of Waushara County. Males, 4,586; Females, 4,228. Total, 8,814.

The population of Waushara county June 1, 1855, was 5,541: increase, 3,273.

There are 28 organized religious societies in this county, to-wit: Seventh day Baptist, 8; Methodist Episcopal, 6; Congregational, 6; Independent Wesleyan, 7; Baptist, 5; Universalist, 1.

Our Special Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.

DOUGLASISM AT A DISCOUNT IN VIRGINIA.

The Douglas men had a very hard time of it in Richmond, Va., last night. Ex Gov. Foote, who has been everything by turns, and nothing long, and who is now a strong Douglas orator, undertook to address the Democracy of that city in behalf of Douglas, but made slow progress.

The ambitious O. Jennings Wise desired that an arrangement should be made by which he could reply to Gen. Foote, to to which the latter demurred, remarking that he had a young son who could measure swords with the turbulent Virginian. This excited the ire of the chivalry, and Foote proceeded amid interruptions. He complained bitterly that he had never been treated before with so much disrespect.

ANOTHER PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE.

Another Richmond is spoken of as a candidate for the Presidency, being no less a person than the Hon. Chief Justice Taney. The Beacon, of Leonardtown, Maryland, says that a meeting is to be held at Leonardtown, Saturday, Sept 1, next, for the purpose of placing Chief Justice Taney, of Maryland, and Judge Samuel Nelson, of New York, formally before the country, as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency and Vice Presidency. One would suppose that the Democracy had already in the field more candidates than they could hope to elect.

The folly of nominating Judge Taney, who is extremely old and in very bad health, must be apparent to every one.

THE INDIAN TROUBLES IN OREGON.

Dispatches have been received at the War Department from Capt. A. J. Smith, First Dragoons, Department of Oregon, in which that officer gives the details of his victorious battle with 150 Snake Indians, twenty-five miles north-west of Lake Harney, Oregon. From numerous indications he has been led to believe that all the Indians in that region of country are hostile.

Col. Wright had ordered three companies of the Third Artillery, under command of Brevet Major Andrews and a squadron of dragoons at Fort Wallawalla, to move at once to the scene of hostilities. With these Major Stein was to scour the whole country and cause the savages to sue for peace.

The commanding officer at Fort Kearney, Nebraska, furnishes to the Department a minute account of the fight with the Kiowas and Camanches, near Republican river. He states that 20 or 30 of the 600 Indians were killed. On the part of the troops one private was missing; two were wounded, and five were killed. Intelligence has been received from Brevet Major J. H. Carlton, dated Headquarters, Camp Cady, on the Mojave river, California, in which is detailed an interview at which a peace was concluded with the tribe of Pahute Indians, which promised to be permanent.

PROGRESS OF REPUBLICANISM IN THE SOUTH.

The progress which Republican principles are making at the South is remarkable. I have already adverted to the strength it is acquiring in Baltimore.

SPIRITED REPUBLICAN DEMONSTRATIONS AT WASHINGTON.

The Star of this city, an Administration organ, thus alludes to its advance in the Federal metropolis. The Star's reporter says:

"The meeting of the Republican Association last evening at their wigwam, on the corner of Indiana avenue and Second Street, was decidedly the largest and most enthusiastic meeting of the kind that has yet been held in that capacious hall. The meeting was addressed by Mr. Dodge, editor of a prominent Republican paper in Minnesota, who spoke for upwards of three-quarters of an hour in an able and highly interesting manner.

"The Republican Glee Club was present in full force, and added to the interest and enthusiasm of the meeting by the excellent rendition of some of the most spirited of their Republican choruses."

A WIDE-AWAKE CLUB AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Arrangements are commenced and perfected for the organization of a Wide-Awake Club, which promises to be very large in numbers. Numerous accessions were made to the list of members of the association. In Virginia also, the party continues to gain ground.

THE NEW YORK BARGAIN AND SALE.

The Baltimore Patriot, the Bell organ of Maryland, continues to expose day after day the infamous nature of the attempted fusion in New York, the exposures having a very disastrous effect upon the Bell interest in Maryland, especially as the country papers supporting Bell are generally taking the same view.—Cin. Gazette.

GOV. BANKS OF MASSACHUSETTS.—We see it stated in the New York paper, that Gov. BANKS, of Massachusetts, has been appointed Vice-President and resident manager of the Illinois Central R. R., and will probably accept the offer. The Tribune says:

"Gov. Banks, though an eminently successful politician, is understood to be very poor. By wise measures of retrenchment, the diminution of offices, and the cutting off of various leaks in the treasury, he has reduced the cost of government to the people of Massachusetts to the amount of over one million dollars per annum. He has done all that he knows how to do in that direction; and a great corporation whose managers have been witnesses of his labors and their fruits, says to him: "We want just such an overhauling and pruning of our expenses as you have given to those of the State; we want, in short, your services, and will pay you twice the wages the State gives you." And the governor, having four strong arguments in favor of the new service proposed—a wife and three children—is thought inclined to accept the offer."

OUR NAVAL FORCES IN THE GULF OF MEXICO.—The somewhat sudden departure for Vera Cruz of the steam frigate Susquehanna, which takes place at 10 o'clock to-day, and the order of the Navy Department for the immediate equipment of the Powhatan, have caused naval people to expect brisk times in the Gulf. The Powhatan's destination has not officially transpired, but the fact that she has not been in any way overhauled or repaired since her recent return from an active cruise of over two years, is sufficient to warrant the conclusion that she is destined to remain for the present in the Western Hemisphere. We append a correct list of the vessels now attached to the home squadron, all of which could of course be concentrated at any point in the Gulf within a few days:

Vessels.	Tonnage.	Officers and Men.	Guns.
Steam Frigate Susquehanna,	3,409	340	10
Steam Frigate Powhatan,	2,415	320	10
Steam Corvette Brooklyn,	2,000	260	20
Steamer Fulton	698	110	5
Steamer Water Witch	378	100	4
Steamer Mohawk	420	100	4
Steamer Crusader	400	125	6
Steamer Pocohontas	850	150	5
Sailing Frigate Sabine	1,726	500	50
Sloop-of-War Savannah	900	300	22
Sloop-of-War St. Louis	700	250	22
Sloop-of-War Yalhoath	713	200	12
Store Ship Release	827	60	4
Total	18 997	2 715	172

The British forces on the station consist of 21 ships, 3,476 officers and men, and 320 guns; and the French of about 6 vessels, manned by 1,500 men. The Prelle, lately detached from our fleet, could be despatched in a few days. The name of the flag ship for the Mediterranean, if the Susquehanna does not ultimately go there, is a mystery just now.—N. Y. Times.

CAMELS FOR CALIFORNIA.—The schooner Caroline E. Foote, from the Amoor river and Castries Bay, via Japan, brought fifteen Mongolian camels, to be sold for the benefit of the German Benevolent Society in San Francisco. These camels are the survivors of thirty-two, but seventeen of them died before being put on board the vessel; the rest arrived in great health, but somewhat thin from their long sea voyage. It must be remembered that these camels, unlike those of Arabia, are natives of cold districts, and thoroughly accustomed to the rigors of a northern climate. They will, therefore, serve admirably to put upon the route through Oregon, the southern portion of California, and western Utah.

BURNED TO DEATH.—A promising little son of Mr. WARNER, of New Lisbon, Waushara Co., was so terribly burned last Tuesday that he died on the following day. The mother had left the room but for a moment, when she heard the shrieks of the child, and returned to find the clothes of the little sufferer enveloped in flames; she soon succeeded in extinguishing it, but not until the entire upper portion of his body, the breast, neck and face, were literally roasted. In this instance there was no unusual carelessness, still it should serve as a warning to all having charge of little children.

Great Republican Meeting at Richmond, Ind.—12,000 People Present.

Special Dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette.

RICHMOND, IND., Aug. 24

The gathering of people here to-day was after the manner of 1840. Not less than 12,000 people were present. Governor Chase spoke over two hours, making one of the ablest efforts of his life, by which the vast multitude was held in complete silence. He was followed by Judge Morton.

At this time the Wide-Awakes are having a grand display, and the people are rejoicing.

AMONG all the attractions which make the vicinity of Boston so desirable a place of residence, is, just now, a live an active anaconda, who was, at the last accounts, roaming about the neat village of Somerville. He was boarded and lodged for same time at the Museum of Natural History, in Cambridge; either the food or the sleeping arrangements were unsatisfactory to the constrictor, and he slipped out for a change of air. For six weeks he traveled incognito—perhaps made up his arrears of slumber; but the other day, two children were playing in a garden of Somerville, and there the monster lazily showed himself, hungrily yawning. Instead of being charmed by the fellow, the elder girl seized her sister and fled to the house. There she fainted, while the other gave the alarm. With trembling steps and quaking hearts, the family turned out to search for the reptile, and after some time the hon was seen coming easily out of a rye field adjoining the garden. As soon as he saw the hostile party, he slunk beneath a neighboring barn, where he is still supposed to lie, inasmuch as there is a terrible screaming heard at intervals, supposed to indicate the fact that the serpent loves poultry, and that he has no conscientious scruples about helping himself to chickens, many of whom are missing. How to get him out is now a question of some importance to the people of the place. Meanwhile, it is probable that furnished houses can be procured at moderate prices in Somerville. The anaconda is thirteen feet long, and has notoriously bad temper. A white adder escaped with him, and unless the greater has eaten the less, more snakes may yet be seen.

DEATH OF AN OLD SETTLER.—The Faribault Republican announces the death of Jean Baptiste Faribault, at that place last Monday morning, after a brief illness. He was eighty-seven years of age, and one of the earliest pioneers of the Western country, having been on the Western frontier for sixty-eight years—two years of which he spent at Mackinaw, from whence he removed to Prairie du Chien, and thence, something over forty years since, to Minnesota, twenty-five years of which he has been a resident of Faribault.

He was for some years an agent of the Northwestern Fur Company, and often traveled up the Mississippi and into the interior of Minnesota before he became a permanent resident. We believe he was the first white man who visited the present site of Faribault. He was eminently successful in the fur trade, and succeeded not only in accumulating a handsome fortune for his children, but in sustaining an unblemished reputation for integrity and fair dealing with his own countrymen, and the entire confidence of the aborigines of the West.

The history of his life and adventures of sixty-eight years on the Western frontier, would form an interesting volume. We hope it may be written and published. His funeral took place at Faribault, Wednesday morning.

LADY FRANKLIN.—This distinguished lady, with her niece, arrived in Montreal yesterday morning. When it became known that she was expected, crowds thronged the wharves and greeted her with enthusiastic cheers. When passing through the crowds a voice called out "God bless her noble efforts!" and we may add, the sentiment of all our citizens could not have been said in fewer or more appropriate words. The Field Battery of Artillery, Captain Stevenson, in a very laudable spirit fired a salute of thirteen guns.

Her trip hither from New York has been a perfect ovation. At every station on the road multitudes collected to see one whose heroic virtues have made her renowned, and at St. Johns Lady Franklin came out from the car and gratefully acknowledged the reception given with so much spontaneity and feeling. While in Montreal she will be the guest of Mr. Harrison Stephens.—Montreal Gazette.

GREAT WAGES.—During the harvest now closing, the demand was so great for labor, that three dollars per day was offered and paid, for ordinary harvest hands, in this county. So great was the demand that boys were sent through the streets to ring bells and proclaim the fact that the laborers were wanted at their own price.

A large number from our city have been and are still in the fields,—and up to this time it is impossible to hire laborers to work in the city.—Saturday (Fond du Lac) Reporter.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—The house of Mr. Brewster, one mile south of this place, was struck by lightning during the storm of last Saturday. The electricity entering the roof, followed down the stove pipe, bursting it open and upsetting the stove, when it passed out the side of the house, tearing off the ceiling and siding, and setting fire to the house. A rod attached to the house was melted down. Members of the family were stricken down unconscious, and were restored only by a free application of water.—Waushara County Argus.

Judge Douglas at Norfolk, Va.

NEW YORK, August 27—3 P. M.

Judge Douglas had an enthusiastic reception at Norfolk, Va., and spoke in the presence of six thousand people. In the middle of his address a slip of paper was handed to him. It was cut from the Norfolk Daily Argus, and contained two political questions:

The first is: If Abraham Lincoln be elected President of the United States, would the Southern States be justified in seceding from the Union?

To this I emphatically answer, "NO." [Great applause.] The election of a man to the Presidency by the American people, in conformity with the Constitution of the United States, would not justify any attempt of dissolving this glorious Confederacy. [Applause.]

The second question is: If they (the Southern States) secede from the Union upon the inauguration of Abraham Lincoln, before he committed an overt act against their constitutional rights, will you advise or vindicate resistance by force to their secession.

I answer emphatically, that it is the duty of the President of the United States, and all others in authority under him, to enforce the laws of the United States, passed by Congress, and as the Courts expound them; and as I am duly bound by my oath and fidelity to the Constitution, would do all in my power to aid the government of the United States in maintaining the supremacy of the laws against all resistance to them, come from whatever quarter it might. In other words, I think the President of the United States should treat all attempts to break up the Union by a resistance to its laws, as Old Hickory treated the nullifiers in 1832. [Applause.]

Foreign News.

NEW YORK, Aug 27—3 P. M.

A Paris correspondent of the New York Times says Austria has now 250,000 men in Venetia.

The same letter says the Neapolitan government had decided to postpone the Parliamentary elections indefinitely. This step, which is equivalent in the eyes of the Neapolitans to an abrogation of constitutions, will produce an immense fermentation, and only hasten the crisis the King wishes to avoid.

Advices from the west coast of Africa, via England, state that the captors of the American bark Edwin, of Salem, have been accused of killing some of the men and attempting the lives of others.

Missouri Politics.

St. Louis, Aug 27—3 P. M.

The Douglas Democrats held a meeting here on Saturday night, which was addressed by Representatives elect, Clark and Noell, and John B. Henderson.

Gen. Gardenshire, late Republican candidate for Governor, and Frank Blair, addressed a meeting at St. Charles on Saturday evening.

Appointments for speaking have been made by the above named and other prominent Republicans, in some twenty counties, during the remainder of the canvas.

Fire at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Aug 27—3 P. M.

A fire broke out in the upper story of a building occupied by James Cullen, boot store, and extending to the store occupied by Isham & Fisher. Loss $20,000—fully insured.

Republican Mass Meeting!! AT THE WIGWAM.

On TUESDAY, the 28th inst., at half past seven o'clock in the evening,

A Republican Mass Meeting!

is to be held at the Wigwam, in the Sixth Ward.

HON. JOHN F. POTTER,
L. F. FRISBY, of West Bend,
J. B. D. COGGSWELL, and
Other Prominent Speakers,

will address the meeting.

The Republicans of the City and Country are invited to attend.

THE COMMITTEE.

Republican Meeting.

In accordance with the resolution passed by the Central Republican Club of Milwaukee, the Republicans of the city and county of Milwaukee, are requested to meet in mass convention at the Republican Head Quarters, in the city of Milwaukee, on the 28th of August, at half past two o'clock P. M., for the purpose of perfecting a county organization and transacting whatever business may be brought before the meeting.

J. B. D. COGGSWELL, Vice Prest.
MARCUS OTTERBOURG, Sec'y pro tem.

WELCOME TO THE MILWAUKEEANS!—The Milwaukee Sentinel, in noticing the meeting to be held here on the fourth, says the D. & M. Railway propose to sell tickets from that place to Detroit and return, for five dollars—a most liberal arrangement—and suggests that a delegation of Milwaukee Republicans shall visit us on the occasion. We can assure our Republican friends they will be heartily welcomed, and we would like to show them how Republican meetings are managed in Detroit. How large a place shall be allotted in the procession to the Milwaukeeans?—Detroit Advertiser.

We hope that our Milwaukee Republicans will avail themselves of this opportunity to visit Detroit and compare notes with their brethren on the Straits. The gathering on the 4th of September, to welcome Senator SEWARD, will undoubtedly be one of the largest and most enthusiastic demonstrations ever seen in the West. And if a good delegation is sent thither from our city the greater will be the probability of Senator SEWARD's visiting Milwaukee, on his way to Madison, and giving us a talk here.

D. C. LA RUE'S PANOPTICON OF INDIA.—This novel, unique and interesting entertainment, which has met with such distinguished success in nearly all the principal cities of the Union, will be given for the first time in Milwaukee to-night, at the Academy of Music. The St. Louis Republican thus speaks of it.

"There is no cessation in the interest felt in this wonderful piece of mechanical ingenuity and artistic skill. The fashion and elite of the city were out in full force again at the St. Louis Museum to witness it. The Panopticon is now fairly before the public, and the interest it excites, and the enthusiastic applause it nightly elicits, are the best evidences of its intrinsic merits, as the most astounding, wonderful and life-like combination of science, genius and mechanism ever conceived. The representation of thousands of soldiers on the march, the engagement, the battle, the retreat, the victory of the besieging army, the field of battle after the engagement, the wounded, the dying, all combine to make this a most thrilling and startling exhibition. We have never seen an entertainment possessing that fascinating power to completely enchain the entire sympathy and attention of the audience. The enthusiastic and frequent applause of the audience at each exhibition is proof positive of their approval. This is the order of the day in amusement matter."

TO TELL THE TIME OF NIGHT BY THE MOON.—To the hour which the moon's shadow indicates on a sundial, add four-fifths of the moon's age, and the sum will be the time sought; or subtract the hour shown on the dial from four-fifths of the moon's age, and the first remainder will be the time sought. The first mode is to be adopted if the moon's shadow falls on an hour in the forenoon, and the latter if it falls on an hour of the afternoon. In reckoning the moon's age, if the new moon happens in the forenoon, that day must be taken as the first; but if it happens in the afternoon, the following day must be counted as the first.

WHERE DOUGLAS' SUPPORTERS ARE.—Over the portal of a notorious dance house, where questionable characters of both sexes most do congregate, not a thousand miles from the Second Ward, may be seen the following in flaring capitals.

STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS.
HERE WE ARE!
The Iron Second.

It will be remembered that this banner figured conspicuously in the great DOUGLAS ratification meeting in this city.

MILWAUKEE IN 1860.—A glance at its Business Houses, its Trade, Commerce and Manufactures. Published by W. H. RAMSTED & Co., Milwaukee. JERMAIN & BRIGHTMAN, Printers.

This is the title of a little book carefully compiled and tastefully gotten up in this city. As an advertising medium it is destined to meet with great success, as all into whose hands it may fall will be sure to turn over and read its cleverly filled pages.

THE SATURDAY REPORTER is the name of a new sheet hailing to us from Fond du Lac. It is published by JOHN J. BENSON, and will be independent though not neutral. As a local paper it is our desire to compliment it. If it furnishes steadily the same amount of local news contained in No. "one," it will take the "shine out" of many State papers we wot of. Success to it.

THIEVES ABOUT.—A family in the 7th ward was robbed of considerable clothing, jewelry and money the other day, by thieves who entered the apartments when no one was about. We hear of other thefts about town, clothes being stolen from the lines, &c. We suggest a little extra vigilance on the part of the police.

THE MUNICIPAL PANOPTICON.

Councilor McCormick runs the Council and the Reporters—Beer to be provided—The Clerk adjourns the Board without leave of the Members.

The performances at the meeting of the Board of Councilors, on Saturday night, were as entertaining and mirth-provoking as usual. The Third Ward breakwater matter came up. It was disposed of at a previous meeting by laying it on the table.

Councilor LOCKWOOD moved to recommend the ordinance to the Judiciary Committee.—Councilors MCCORMICK and O'BRIEN spoke feelingly in regard to the matter. They hoped it would not be re-committed, but it finally was.

The next act was devoted entirely to the West Side Railroads.

Councilor LOCKWOOD moved to refer them to the Local Committee of the Sixth, Ninth Second and Fourth Wards.

Councilor MCCORMICK moved to amend by including the other Wards. Another amendment was offered to include the Fifth and Eighth Wards. The question on the last amendment was about to be put when Councilor MCCORMICK asked what the question was.

The President informed him it was on his own amendment. Councilor MCCORMICK then called for the ayes and noes. And Councilor REUCKERT asked what the question was. The obliging President informed this gentleman also.

Ayes, 8; noes, 8. Motion lost. The original question, on the reference, was then put, but stopped at the moment of decision by Councilor MCCORMICK, who declared it was out of order. Nevertheless it was finally put, with this result: Ayes 9, noes 7.—Whereupon Councilor MCCORMICK moved to reconsider the vote. This motion was carried. Councilor MCCORMICK then moved to refer the Humboldt ordinance to a committee of one from the First, Seventh and Third Wards. This was carried also.

Councilor MCCORMICK then introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Board of Aldermen concurring, that the sum of twenty cents shall be and hereby is, appropriated out of the general city fund, for the purchase of beer for the gang of reporters now frequenting this room, on condition that the said reporters refrain from abusing the members, and from spitting tobacco juice on the carpet.

This resolution being in the nature of an ordinance, should have laid over under the rules, but as a precedent the Councilors thought it would be well to treat it kindly, and so they referred it to the Committee on Finance.

Here the President resigned the chair to Councilor ROSENBECK.

Councilor LOCKWOOD, after considerable trouble, managed to get the floor with the "investigating committee" business in his hand. This was the signal for uneasiness, and before the Councilor from the First could open the disagreeable subject, a motion was made to adjourn.

It was in vain that the gentleman from the First begged them to withdraw the motion. They looked at the ominous papers in his hand, and insisted on the question.

As a fitting climax to the whole performance, when the vote was taken, the President, pro tem., held up the tally and read "Ayes 9, Noes 6,—the motion is lost."

Councilor MCCORMICK wished to know how it could be lost if there were more ayes than noes.

The pro tem. then put on his spectacles and after a searching examination of the slip, pronounced it to be even so, ayes 9, noes 6—the Council was adjourned.

Whereupon exeunt omnes—except Councilors LOCKWOOD and NOYES—who lingered long enough to learn from the Clerk that he had made a mistake in placing his figures, which should have read, Ayes 6, Noes 9,—and that the Council, though thoroughly disseminated, was not adjourned.

THE DETROIT & MILWAUKEE R. R. ROUTE.—As the fall approaches and business improves, the steamers connected with the Detroit & Milwaukee R. R. again find full employment. The Detroit, which left here yesterday afternoon, had a full load of freight—mainly flour, wheat and wool—and a full complement of passengers. The two steamers, the Detroit and Milwaukee, have run through the season, thus far, with unvarying punctuality, missing no connection and meeting with no accidents. In view of the rapid increase in their business, the Company are putting up an addition, about sixty feet square, to their warehouse accommodations on the wharf, at the foot of Milwaukee Street. They will need all the room they can get to do the business which will crowd upon them, during the coming fall.

MUNICIPAL COURT, AUG. 27TH.—Ellen McBride, drunk and disorderly, fined $10 and costs. Sent to Jail for 10 days.

Patrick Mack, disorderly; fined $5 and costs.

Chas. Smith, drunk; fined $2 and costs.

Bridget Smith, vagrancy; fined $10 and costs, allowed to go on parole.

Henry Dersey, vagrancy, fined $10 and costs, allowed to go on parole.

Conrad Nichols, larceny from jail, held to bail in the sum of $300 to appear at next and in default committed.

Eliza Goulding, selling liquor without a license; continued to the 28th.

Joseph Withers, violating ordinance in relation to steamboat runners; fined $10 and costs. Paid.

MILWAUKEE TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION No. 23.—At a regular meeting of this Society, held on Saturday evening, Aug. 25th, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—JOSEPH YEWDALE.
Vice Pres't.—H. L. WILLIAMS.
Treasurer—GEO. MURPHY.
Fin. Secretary—G. A. COOLEY.
Cores. Sec'y.—H. K. W. ATEES.
Rec. Sec'y.—JAS. KERR.
Guardian—DAN'L. HALLORAN.
Board of Directors.—ALEX. CORBITT, HENRY TREYSER, C. FRIEZE, J. HANCOCK TOWLE, G. A. TREYSER.

FOR DETROIT, CLEVELAND AND BUFFALO.—The upper cabin screw steamer Winona, Capt. CONERY, leaves the Milwaukee & Mississippi R. R., dock this Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, for the above and intermediate ports. For passage apply at the office foot East Water Street; GRIFFIN & FLINT, Agents.

BURNING FLUID.—A little daughter of Mr. EDDINGTON, who resides on Eighth street, was severely burned in the face and hands, by the upsetting of a fluid lamp on Saturday evening last.

IF YOU WILL, read CALEB WALL's advertisement this morning about dwelling houses, to be sold on Saturday next by the Sheriff. There is a chance to get a home on very easy terms, and now is the time to purchase.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL and congregation of the First Presbyterian Church go on a picnic to Elm Grove this morning.

C. WALL, Auctioneer, has a great sale this morning, at 10 o'clock, of peaches. Read his advertisement on the subject.

Mass Meeting to take into Consideration the Horse Railroad Matters.

We, the subscribed citizens, residents of the Second, Fourth, Sixth and Ninth Wards of Milwaukee, believing that our best interests are involved in the present question on Horse Railroads in our said Wards, and believing that this question is deserving of a full and thorough investigation from the citizens of these four Wards, hereby invite our fellow-citizens, independent of party, to assemble in Mass Meeting at the Republican Wigwam, in the Sixth Ward, on Wednesday, August 29, at half-past seven o'clock P. THE TOWN OF MILWAUKEE.—At a meeting held at the house of CHARLES E. HARTMAN, Washington road, town of Milwaukee, on the 25th of August, 1860, Mr. HIRAM BENDER was chosen Chairman, and CHAS. L. BJORNMARK Secretary.

The following resolutions were reported by the committee appointed for the purpose of organizing a Republican club in the town aforesaid. They were adopted unanimously, and are the sentiments of every man in this town, who acknowledges true Republican principles:

Resolved, That the Republicans of the town of Milwaukee, in committee assembled, do endorse and ratify the nomination of ABRAHAM LINCOLN and HANNIBAL HAMLIN, and the principles set forth in the platform erected by the regular convention at Chicago, May, 1860, and that we hereby pledge them our cordial and hearty support.

Resolved, That the members of this, our young Republican club, be, and they are hereby instructed to cast their votes for no man who is not unequivocally committed as a Republican.

Resolved, To hold meetings on the 8th and 22d of September and 20th of October next, for the purpose of political discussions.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the daily Sentinel and Atlas.

HIRAM BENDER, Ch'm.
CHAS. L. BJORNMARK, Sec'y.

ST. CHARLES HOTEL.—The St. Charles Hotel, on Market Square, which is owned and kept by our fellow-citizen, CAPTAIN UPMANN, has been put in excellent order throughout, and offers a very pleasant home to travelers, as well as citizens. The rooms are airy and well lighted, the furniture new and neat, and the table excellent. The St Charles is daily growing in favor with our transient and resident population.

CONCERT OF FIFE MAJOR ROBINSON.—A small audience assembled in the Academy last evening, to listen to the magic fife of Majo ROBINSON. The Major acquitted himself well as usual, and the Cornet Band discoursed most exquisitely.

WE ARE HAVING at present the most delightful weather imaginable. Cool, crisp and buoyant.

Douglas and Dred Scott.

On Saturday we cited, from HOWARD'S Reports of the U. S. Supreme Court, the syllabus of the decision in the DRED SCOTT case, to show what points were then and there established by the Federal tribunal. We also quoted the explicit declaration of Senator DOUGLAS, that he himself, in common with the Democracy of Illinois, accepted that decision as the authoritative exposition of the Constitution and the Law on the questions involved. And inasmuch as the Court expressly denied the right of either Congress, or the Territorial Legislature, to interfere in any way with the right of property in slaves in the Territories of the United States, we held that the doctrine of "Squatter Sovereignty"—the single plank in the DOUGLAS platform, and the "one idea" which forms the staple of his electioneering speeches—was annihilated by the decision. As there is no escape from this conclusion, the News undertakes to assail our premises, and it does so, in rather a novel fashion. After quoting the syllabus referred to, the News proceeds to say:

> Now, this syllabus was prepared by the reporter, and simply presents the points which he thinks were passed upon by the Court. It is nothing more nor less than his interpretation or construction of this decision.

The SENTINEL, however, assumes that it is an authoritative exposition of the decision, which it is not, and on that assumption proceeds to endorse the position of YANCEY.

This plea cannot stand for a moment. It is not what "the reporter" thinks, but what the Court decides, that is embodied in the syllabus. It is the official "exposition of the decision," and entitled, therefore, to rather more weight than the ipse dixit of the editor of the News, or any body else. If Mr. HOWARD, in his reports, had ascribed to the Court opinions which it did not entertain, and included in his syllabus points which the Court did not decide, the Federal Judges would long since have corrected the error. But in fact, the syllabus, as well as the elaborate opinion of the Court in the case, was submitted to and approved by the Judges themselves, before it was made public. The reporter is merely the official mouth-piece, through whom is communicated to the People the decision of the Court.—There can be no question, therefore, that the syllabus is "the authoritative exposition" of the decision in the Dred Scott case; and as little that, under the volunteered pledge of Mr. DOUGLAS, it effectually disposes of "Squatter Sovereignty."

It is because the News is perfectly aware of this fact that it undertakes to deny the authority of the syllabus. The public will not be at a loss to decide whether Mr. HOWARD, the reporter, or the editor of the News, best knows what the U. S. Supreme Court decided in the Dred Scott case.

The News still insists that the SENTINEL endorses "the position of YANCEY." The SENTINEL does nothing of the kind. It is the U. S. Court, not the SENTINEL, which passed upon the Dred Scott case; and Mr. DOUGLAS, not the SENTINEL, that accepts this decision as a finality. The Court, Mr. YANCEY, Mr. DOUGLAS and his associate, Mr. JOHNSON, all hold that slaveholders have a perfect right to take their human chattels into any and every foot of United States Territory, and must be protected in the assertion and maintainance of that right. The SENTINEL holds that this practical extension of Slavery into Free Territory, is not sanctioned by the Constitution, was never contemplated by the founders of the Republic and is hostile to the interests of Free Labor, contrary to Right, and repugnant to every instinct of Humanity. That is the difference between the SENTINEL and the Republican party, on the one side, and DOUGLAS, YANCEY, JOHNSON, with the rest of the Shams, on the other.

Sensible from the South.

Col. PERRY, a member of the South Carolina Legislature, a Delegate to the Chicago Convention, and a man of high character and extensive influence, has just addressed a very sensible letter to the Charleston Courier. It is nothing more or less than a strong and logical protest against the menaces of Disunion in which many prominent Southern politicians are permitting themselves to indulge.

After referring to the fact that certain individuals in the South regard the election of a Republican President sufficient cause for the destruction of the Federal Government and all the horrors of civil war and revolution. Col. PERRY begs it to be understood that there are those who think differently. He says:

> The possibility is that the Black Republican candidate will be elected President of the United States. It is a grievous misfortune, and one to be deeply lamented by every citizen of the South. But it must be remembered that the Southern States will have brought this misfortune, grievous as it may be, on themselves, by their own divisions and party strife. Nothing can be more clearly shown. It was predicted at the time, and the South forewarned of the impending danger.
>
> In the unfortunate disruption of the Democratic party at Charleston, which I did all that I could do, amidst the hisses and assaults of an excited community, to prevent, I saw the triumph of the Black Republicans in the coming Presidential election. I stated in a letter written and published immediately afterwards, that the Southern States would be divided into three bitterly hostile factions, and that a Black Republican President would be elected, and that these petty divisions of the South would utterly defeat a union of the South in any scheme of disunion. It is true in religion and in politics, the nearer sects and parties approach without assimilating, the more bitter they are towards each other.
>
> If the seceding members of the Charleston Convention had retained their seats in that body, Breckinridge and Lane, or others equally acceptable to the Southern States, would have been the nominees of the Democratic Party for President or Vice President. It was a well asserted fact that Douglas could not, under any contingency, get the two-thirds vote required for a nomination. After a number of ballotings the friends of Judge Douglas would have cast their votes for Hunter, Breckinridge, Dickinson, or some one else acceptable to the South. And after the withdrawal & portion of the Southern delegates they became excited and more disposed to adhere to their candidate. The adjournment to Baltimore was for the purpose of giving the friends of Judge Douglas, in the seceding States, an opportunity of sending delegates in place of those who withdrew. This fact I know.
>
> The Colonel then gives his reasons for supposing that the election of Mr. LINCOLN will not be calculated particularly to injure the South. These are, in brief:
>
> 1. "His Administration will commence a weak one, and it is not probable that he can, backed by one-third of the people of the United States, seriously injure and oppress the other two-thirds."
>
> 2. "A majority of the Senate of the United States will be opposed to his Administration, and no bill can become a law until it receives the sanction of the Senate. This majority in the Senate cannot be changed for several years to come. It is doubtful, too, as to the majority of the House of Representatives.—More than likely the next election will give a majority of the members of the House in opposition to the Republicans."
> 3. "It is likely that LINCOLN will pursue a very cautious, politic and wise course towards the South. It cannot be in the nature of any man elevated to the Presidency, to wish to see the government broken up under his Administration, the Republic dismembered, and the country plunged in a civil war. Very likely his great effort will be to acquire popularity in the Southern States, and appease their opposition by a rigid adherence to the Constitution and respect for the rights of the South. It is not at all improbable that the South may find more favors under the Administration of LINCOLN than they have under any Democratic Administration. It may be that Old ABE will go out of office quite a favorite with the Southern people! At least we should give him a trial."

This is but one of many auspicious indications that as the fact of Mr. LINCOLN'S election becomes more and more apparent, the people of the South, turning a deaf ear to the outcries of the Secessionists and Disunionists, are preparing to acquiesce, peaceably and in good faith, in the will of the majority, and will give Mr. LINCOLN'S Administration a fair trial. That is all that his friends ask for.

The Republicans of New York.

The Republicans of New York held their nominating Convention, at Syracuse, last week. Every District in the State was fully represented, and there was a very large attendance of interested lookers-on. The proceedings were characterized by entire harmony and great enthusiasm. Governor MORGAN and Lieutenant Governor CAMPBELL were re-nominated by acclamation, without the formality of a ballot, and amidst enthusiastic cheering. This was a well-deserved compliment to official integrity and personal worth. The electoral ticket embraces the following names.

ELECTORS AT LARGE:
WM. CULLEN BRYANT,
JAMES O. PUTNAM.

DISTRICT ELECTORS:

1st Dist—	John A. King	17th Dist—	A. Beckwith
2d "	E. W. Fiske	18th "	H. Churchill
3d "	A. Carrigan	19th "	J. R. Allibone
4th "	Jas. Kelly	20th "	B.N. Huntington
5th "	S. Kaufmann	21st "	S. D. Phelps
6th "	F. Kapp	22d "	J. T. Hoyt
7th "	W. Smith	23d "	Hiram Dewey
8th "	W. A. Darling	24th "	J. L. Voorhees
9th "	W. H. Robertson	25th "	W. Van Marer
10th "	Geo. M. Grier	26th "	J. E. Seeley

14th "	J. H. Ten Eyck	30th "	C. C. Parker
15th "	N. E. Sheldon	31st "	E. S. Winslow
16th "	R. S. Hale	32d "	J. Greiner, Jr.
		33d Dist—	James Parker.

Of the two well-known and distinguished gentlemen who head the ticket, the Tribune says:

> William C. Bryant and James O. Putnam are happily combined as the Senatorial Electors on the Lincoln ticket. Mr. Bryant is our great old living poet, has been an editor for nearly forty years, and was an early Radical Democracy for more than twenty years. He effectively supported Jackson, Van Buren, Polk but revolted with the disciples of Samuel Young and Silas Wright from their intrigue for slavery extension under the guise of Popular Sovereignty. There is no man in our State more widely known and admired.
> James O. Putnam was a Whig of the school of Clay and Webster, united with the "American" and was elected by them to the Senate. He zealously supported Millard Fillmore in '56, and headed the "American," State Ticket in 1857. He is now heartily with the Republicans for Lincoln and Hamlin, as are most of the former Americans in Western N. Y. The people will insist that he shall take a leading part in the canvass now to be opened in earnest.

After the Convention had completed its business, which it did in six hours, there was a grand "Wide-Awake" demonstration in the streets of Syracuse. Nearly three thousand "Wide-Awakes," in uniform and with torches, accompanied by several bands of music, took part in the procession. The display was a magnificent one and excited great enthusiasm. The procession called, among others, upon THURLOW WEED, the veteran editor of the Albany Evening Journal, and paid him the compliment of a serenade and nine rousing cheers. Mr. WEED returned his acknowledgements in a brief and happy speech. The utmost confidence was expressed that NEW YORK was good for the REPUBLICAN cause and candidates, against any and every possible combination or coalition, by an overwhelming majority. And the vote of New York for LINCOLN settles the question in his favor.

Senator Seward to Speak at Madison, Wednesday, Sept. 12th.

A dispatch received this morning from Senator SEWARD, dated Auburn, (N. Y.,) Aug. 24, designates Wednesday, the 12th day of September, as the day on which he will address the Republicans of Wisconsin at this city.

I have thought it proper to make an announcement of the fact in this manner, in consequence of the number of unauthorized and conflicting reports on the subject, which have appeared in the press.

The day is well chosen to accommodate those residing at a distance, and it is hoped there will be a large attendance from all sections of the State. Other distinguished Republican speakers will be present.

HORACE RUBLEE,
Ch'n Rep. State Cen. Com.

Madison, August 24.

We copy the above official notice from the State Journal and presume that the date named for Gov. SEWARD'S speech at Madison is a correct one. Our announcement of the 11th as the day, was based upon a letter from the Chairman of the Republican State Committee at Detroit, requesting us to give notice of the change of time from the 8th to the 11th. Wednesday, the 12th of September, then, let it be remembered, is the day for the gathering of the Republicans at Madison to greet the distinguished Senator from New York. As we stated yesterday, we hope that Gov. SEWARD will also find time to visit our city and address the people here, as well as at Madison.

The New York Herald's New Tack.

From the New York Herald of Tuesday.

As we draw closer and closer to the important day when the issues of the Presidential contest are to be decided, and with them the destiny, perhaps, of the nation, the positions of the contending forces are being more and more clearly defined. The fight, which up to this time appeared to be a quadrangular one between the forces of Lincoln, Bell, Douglas, and Breckinridge, with old Sam Houston performing a little guerilla work on his own account, is now becoming narrowed down to a hand-to-hand conflict between the legions of black Republicanism, headed by Lincoln, and the patriotic, practical, conservative masses of the people, headed by Bell. The insignificant and disorganized hordes of plunderers and free-booters that trained under Douglas and Breckinridge respectively, have either dwindled away through inebriation and desertion, or else are seen filing over, in disregard of their leaders, and swelling the ranks of the main army under Bell and Everett. And we expect to see, before the eventful day of conflict comes, that the true and loyal masses of the people, who are averse to all sectional agitation, will combine together, North, South, East and West, and present an impenetrable front to the abolition enemy.

A few days ago the Herald was announcing that the nomination of BRECKINRIDGE was "the only one which had touched popular heart." Then, for a short time, it inclined favorably towards DOUGLAS, while just now it is for BELL. What step it will take next it is difficult to guess, but the Republicans, are least, are safe from the damaging effects of its support.

THE LAST GOOD THING.—Three weeks ago, the Democrats of Ann Arbor, Michigan, prepared a handsome pole to erect in honor of their Presidential candidate. But when it was ready to go up, there were not Democrats enough to be found to do the required lifting. At the end of three weeks, it was sold to the Republicans, who added thirty feet to it, and then run it up with a shout for "LINCOLN and Liberty."

SAD ACCIDENT—THREE PERSONS DROWNED.—A man named ANGELBERGER, from Winneconne, and his two children—a boy of six and a girl of eight years—were drowned in the Fox River, near Butte des Morts, last Saturday afternoon. They were in a small boat, going to Winneconne. From some cause unknown the boat upset and all three were drowned, before assistance could reach them. The bodies were recovered on Monday.

SOME WORKMEN having carelessly left a gas pipe unsealed in a house in New York, last Thursday, the rooms became filled with gas, and upon one of the inmates going in with a lighted lamp, an explosion took place which seriously injured six persons.

Politics in New York.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

BUFFALO, Aug. 24, 1860.

DEAR SENTINEL:—Of course the topic of the day is politics. Everybody talks politics, thinks politics, and acts politics; political processions and demonstrations are the order of the day; political banners float from every flagstaff, and notices of political meetings are plastered thick on every wall; then what should your correspondent write of but politics.

Never perhaps in any Presidential election since the palmy days of "Tippecanoe and Tyler too," has Buffalo manifested so much feeling in regard to the great political questions of the day; never, perhaps, it would seem, have the minds of the people been so agitated and their resolution so determined to express their feelings at the polls, as during the present campaign.

Buffalo is at present almost entirely a Republican city, and the Republican party here, too, is solid, compact, and united, heart and hand, while what remains of the Democratic party is split on their two candidates, and the BELL and EVERETT ticket only helps their disorder.

You are doubtless aware ere this of the re-nomination of Governor MORGAN. He is a great favorite in Buffalo, and she will be almost unanimous in his favor at election.—No man has ever been elected Governor who has helped the party popularity as Governor MORGAN has. The Republican party may well be proud of his administration; it has been an honor to the party and a practical demonstration of the great principles of Republicanism. By his steady, unswerving course in doing right, unmindful of influences around him—so thoroughly exhibited in all his official acts—he has won the hearts of the people, and they feel alike from rich to poor, that they have a head which will give them justice, and see that they are not wronged, and one, too, whose acts will bear the strictest scrutiny. Not only will Governor MORGAN'S re-nomination greatly help the "rail-splitter's" cause throughout the State, but it will give the party a deeper seat in the affections of the people. As with Governor MORGAN so with the whole Republican ticket—it is sure to be carried by an immense majority. But for the present adieu. Yours, truly, ALF.

The Political Coalition.

It seems to be universally conceded that a larger number of the people of this State are in favor of the Republican than of any other ticket. Each of the three other parties confesses its inability to carry the State.—But they all hope that by uniting their forces they may defeat their common foe. The great point aimed at now, therefore, by the friends of Bell, Douglas, and Breckinridge, is to combine their votes so as to defeat Lincoln. The work has been partly accomplished. The Douglas Democrats have put up an electoral ticket of which ten places, out of 33, are given to the friends of Bell;—and it is confidently believed that before the election the Breckinridge party will accept a similar position on the same ticket.

This is a most extraordinary spectacle,—one never before witnessed, we believe, in the history of the country. Coalitions are bad enough in any case. Even when political leaders, who have been hostile to each other, unite to advance some principle or some policy which they hold in common, they are quite apt to disgust and repel the mass of their followers. The people at large detest everything that looks like political trading. It always smacks of corruption.—It shocks their ideas of consistency, and of steady adhesion to a regular course of political action.

But in this case the attempted coalition is in the grossest and most flagrant violation of every pretence of political decency. Here are three parties who have nothing whatever in common, but their malignant hatred of a fourth. They have always differed, radically and widely, upon nearly every political question that has engaged public attention for the last few years. Douglas professes to believe in Popular Sovereignty—he is acting with two parties who have vied with each other in scouting and denouncing it. He has waged vigorous and vehement war upon the principles and policy of the Americans—yet he is here acting in close harmony with men who for years have been the leaders of that party in this State. The coalition is made up of the most incongruous elements. Each of the parties to it regards the other two as enemies of the public welfare. No two of them hold the same principles, support or esteem the same men, or aim at the same results. They agree only in hatred of the Republicans. The basis of their compact is a common malignity. They do not pretend to think alike on any of the great questions that divide the country.

To expect that such a coalition will command the confidence and receive the support of the people, is to rate them but little above sheep that follow their leaders, blindly and thoughtlessly, to the maket of the shambles. Any man who votes the Coalition ticket votes for Bell, Douglas and Breckinridge all at once,—votes for Unionism. Squatter-Sovereignty and Southern Pro-slavery Secessionism at the same moment and by the same ballot. Do the contrivers of this plot regard the voters of this State as mere political gamblers,—reckless of principle, ready to vote any way or all ways, according to the orders of their self-appointed dictators?—What sort of a popular canvass can be made under such a flag? What speech can please one-third of the Coalition audience, that will not offend and disgust the other two-thirds?

Nor is it possible for any sensible man who may be asked to vote this ticket to avoid the belief that he is to be cheated in the end. He is urged to vote it for the sake of electing the ten Bell men who are on it. Suppose it succeeds:—how does he know that the whole vote will be cast for Douglas or Breckinridge? Indeed, in this case it has already leaked out that the Bell votes will be cast for Douglas,—that putting their names on the ticket is a mere sham,—designed simply to obtain the votes of their friends under false pretences. That man must have a strange appreciation of the public sense, who hopes for success in so transparent and so shameless a game of political trickery.

The Republicans of this State have no apprehension of the coalition that has been formed against them. They believe that it will forfeit the support of thousands of voters, who, under other circumstances, would not vote the Republican ticket.—New York Times.

GREAT YIELD OF GRAIN.—We stated last week that the yield of wheat in this county would average at least thirty bushels to the acre. We have heard of many instances where the yield exceeded thirty-five bushels, and some pieces that are threshed out, over forty bushels to the acre.

A piece of twenty-two acres on the farm of Mr. Gustavus, near the city limits, yielded 935 bushels, or forty-two and a half bushels to the acre.

A field of oats on the same farm, of ten and two-thirds acres, yielded 753 bushels.—Oshkosh Courier.

Auction Sales.

City Auction Room and Land Office.

I AM NOW REMOVED TO THE STORE No. 163 East Water street. It is directly opposite Mitchell's Bank. I think I have now one of the best stands for auction business in our city. All who have any business in my line will please give me a call. CALEB WALL.

The firm of OGDEN & WALL is dissolved. I will at present occupy the same office for real estate purposes, and attend to all business, such as examining loans, selling interests, and renting houses. Insurances can be obtained in first class Eastern Companies at current rates. In the course of two weeks I intend to make my annual report of the improvements which are now going on in the various Wards of our city. The impression with some is that no improvements are going on, which is a mistake: Milwaukee city is yet alive and going ahead, and will continue to do so. Never was there such an opportunity for capitalists to invest money, as now offers. One thing I would request: all who have made contracts for building will please inform me who that I can report the same. CALEB WALL,
City Land Agent.

Boots and Shoes.

Dealers in Boots and Shoes,
THE CELEBRATED COPPER TOE!
WADSWORTH & WELLS,
WHOLESALE DEALERS IN
Boots and Shoes,
60 LAKE STREET, CHICAGO. 60.

WE OWN THE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT for the sale of MITCHELL'S PATENT INFLATED FIRE HOSE BOOTS AND SHOES, for and within the States of Wisconsin, Iowa and Illinois, and hereby give notice that all parties dealing in these goods from the above States, without having first arranged with us so to do, by our consent, are and will be direct infringers upon our EXCLUSIVE rights, and that as soon as we are advised of such infringement, shall demand proper and immediate redress.

We have made extensive arrangements with the most celebrated manufacturers, whereby we can fully supply the increasing demand with the best qualities of these Inner Boots and Shoes from our store in Chicago, each pair of which will be stamped and labeled with our name.

We shall manufacture Tipped goods within either the above States, but such are thus stamped and supplied by us.

We have in all instances one pair of child's copper-tipped shoes to our wax-two and otherwise three or four pairs of equal quality without tips, as can be shown by very many testimonials, while the expense is but a trifle more, making an actual average saving to the consumer of near two hundred per cent.

Merchants and dealers in Boots and Shoes within the above States, can also find these Metallic Tipped Boots and Shoes supplied and properly stamped by Wadsworth & Wells, for sale of ATKINS, STEELE & WHITE, and BRADLEY & HAMLIN, Milwaukee. sept23 6m4w1y WADSWORTH & WELLS.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.
DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS,
Prepared by Cornelius L. Cheeseman, M.D.,
NEW YORK CITY.

THE COMBINATION OF INGREDIENTS in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation and certain in correcting all irregularities. Painful and Menstruation, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, whites, all nervous affections, fatigue, pain in the back and limbs, &c., disturbed sleep, which arise from interruption of nature.

TO MARRIED LADIES,

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills are invaluable, as they will bring on the monthly period with regularity. Ladies who have been disappointed in the use of other Pills can place the utmost confidence in Dr. Cheeseman's Pills doing all that they represent to do.

NOTICE.

There is one condition of the female system in which the Pills cannot be taken without producing PECULIAR RESULT. The condition referred to is PREGNANCY—the result, MISCARRIAGE. Such is the irresistible tendency of the medicine to restore the sexual functions to a normal condition, that even the reproductive power of nature cannot resist it.

Warranted purely vegetable, and free from anything injurious. Explicit directions, which should be read, accompany each box. Prices $1. Sent by Mail on enclosing $1 to DR. CORNELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, Box 4631, Post Office, New York City.

Sold by one Druggist in every town in the United States.

The New American Watch.

IN ORDER TO MEET THE REQUIREMENTS of Gentlemen who prefer a thinner watch than those usually made by us, we have lately issued a new style of watch on the Lever-quarter plate model, especially designed for this purpose.

In establishing this new series, it has also been our design to produce a watch in every way superior to the best and highest priced products of the most incredible of English and Swiss watch manufacturers; and no labor or expense has been spared to this end.

In all respects of fine and durable material, of external and internal finish, accurate compensation and adjustment, of mathematically fine proportions, and of practical excellence, this new quarter plate watch challenges competition with any in the world.

Dr. Jas. McClintock's Pectoral Syrup

ARE YOUR LUNGS WEAK? DOES a long breath give you pain? Have you a hacking cough? Do you expectorate hard, tough matter? Are you wanted with night sweats and weakness? If so, take it in your remedy. It will unquestionably save you.

Price $1. Sold by Henry Fess, Jr., and other druggists. aug18d1m

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!

DON'T FAIL TO PROCURE MRS Winslow's soothing syrup for children teething. It has no equal on earth. It greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing inflammation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skilful Female Physicians in New England, and has been used with never failing success in millions of cases.

We believe it to be the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arises from teething or any other cause.

If cost and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, this is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of bottles are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well tried remedy.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

☞ None genuine unless the fac simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Dr. McClintock's Cold and Cough Mixture.

CONSISTS OF A VARIETY OF VEGETABLE specifics for pulmonary irritation, combined in one infallible antidote, by a physician acknowledged by his professional brethren to have "no superior." It dissipates immediately the most distressing symptoms of cold, cough, or sore throat, and removes it entirely in an incredibly short time.

Price 25 cts. Sold by Henry Fess, Jr., and other druggists. aug18d1m

Pimples on the Face and Skin Diseases

ARE GENERALLY CAUSED BY AN insoluble burrowhead in the skin. Dr. Trask's Magnetic Ointment, by its powerful and penetrating qualities, destroys every vestige of them, restoring health and beauty to the skin wherever applied, removing Tan and Freckles.

Inflamed or Sore Eyes.

A. G. Cushing, of South Read, Tal., says: "The Magnetic Ointment is the only remedy in use here for INFLAMED EYES. The Author of our county has so much faith in its curative powers in this disease, that he not only highly recommends it, but offers to forfeit the amount paid for it in each case, if it fails of a cure."

Piles.

Piles which are at this season of the year particularly troublesome, are cured at once by Trask's Magnetic Ointment; apply to the parts affected and smell of the back.

Nervous or Sick Headache.

Apply the Ointment freely to the forehead and temples and back of the neck, also to the soles of the feet and palms of the hands. It will relieve the severest headache in thirty minutes.

☞ Sold by all medicine dealers.

THE GREAT EASTERN.

"Vanity Fair" has the following on the mammoth steamer:

She was a goodlie shippe I weene
As ever plowed ye mere,
So bigge a craft had ne'er been seene,
And ne'er will be agayne;
Ye grasse it grewe upon one ende
Whyle t'other ende they mowed,
And wheate it frayed upon ye bowes
Uponne ye sterne lite snowed.

Uponne Leere decks with gamesomme wyles
Ye nutte brown ponies playde,
Were dreamed howe scone their tendere shines
Would be by butchers flayed;
And where greene pastures chickeene grewe
Were nutte scone ye grasse;
It was a strayuge ande wondrouse scene,
And diddle ye world amaze.

And we were bride by steamonne holde,
And landesmenne thonne to,
That "deepe withinne herre bowelles darke
Strayuge monstrouse creatures grewe,
Confined to everlastinge gloome—
Ye Cattle amaze ye crewe.
Watched dayes and nighte ye fires brighte
That they should evere burne."

"And therre ye stokerre stoketh yatte
The firetonne stille doethe flee;
To make ye bigge shippe fastere go
Is all ye twayne desire.
A score of sweltre stokerres there ye wheele,
Five hundrede watche each mast;
And sift ie more they heave ye lead
When she is sayling faste."

"O! She is long and she is highe,
And she is deepe, I trowe,
And once a week a gentle-mayde
Brings tydinge from belowe:
Ande when they hoyse ye banderre uppe
Uponne a pleasant day,
They put it in a great balloone
And sende it on its waye."

The Way My Wife Came to Me.
A CAPITAL STORY.

It was the day on which the United States steamer was due. I waited the event with impatience, for I expected it to bring letters that would either command my return to America, or give me a furlough, by which I might escape the foul exhalations which were generating in the densely packed city of London.

Five months previous to that time I had consented to take charge of a delicate financial affair that threatened to interrupt, if not entirely destroy, the business relations between an eminent company in America and some foreign houses.

Embarrassing and perplexing as the tangled transaction had been, it had afforded me a certain pleasure, for without self-flattery, I may only say that I had maintained my position through the whole affair with credit. I had ceded nothing without getting more than its equivalent; I had managed with such satisfaction to my employers, that towards the finishing of the business they had left me with few restrictions. But as I began to see a favorable and brilliant terminus to my diplomacy, I also made the discovery that my health was suffering. Travel and ceaseless activity of mind, along with the nervous stretch to which my system had been subjected, began to tell their effects in headache and sleepless nights, and it was with longing for rest that I had taken the train for Liverpool, that I might get my instructions at the earliest moment of their arrival.

It was, therefore, with no small degree of pleasure, looking from a loop-hole of a bedroom window, that I noticed among the craft floating over the Anglesea waters, the American steamer coming in; and no sooner did the report of her signal gun announce that she had touched the wharf than I drove down for my letters. They were there, but brought no summons homeward. "The cotton crop," so wrote my senior, "was a total failure, and the event would doubtless affect greatly the state of the market abroad, and it would be necessary for me to remain another month, or until such time as I could be certain the fluctuations could have no bearing upon our present arrangements. "I had better," he added, "confine myself to England, to visit the Lakes or a watering place, but not remain there in case of contingencies." After reading the above with a half-checked sigh, I buttoned on my linen duck coat, and ordered my baggage to be taken to a depot.

The next morning I sat down in His Majesty's Hotel, at Brighton, to a breakfast of shrimps and whiting, and after sauntering a while on the Downs, and taking a bracing sea bath, I returned to my "apartment," as the obsequious waiter called the twelve by fifteen feet bed room, and threw myself upon the lounge. I must have slept some time; when I awoke, my two broad bed-room windows, which faced the sea, were thrown wide open, and through them the wind was rushing and blowing about the curtains, and bringing on its breath the saline scents of the ocean. I lay still as one after waking suddenly, inhaling the health-freighted air, and listening to the boom of the waves as they dashed against the beach, when a gruff and heavy voice, which sounded as if proceeding from behind the lounge, surprised me. I rose, and looking about discovered a large open ventilator, just over the head of the couch; that was the medium that conveyed sounds to me. Satisfied, I sank back to my reverie, when the voice sounded again, clearer and louder, so that I could not help but hear the words.

"So, Bess," it said, "you meant to thwart me; you think because you have always had your own way with me, that you carry the day now; but you handle the ribbons too freely to win the stakes. For instance why did you refuse to dance with Von Holt last night, and why did you leave the assembly room without my escort?"

"I left the room, sir, because Lady Grey was ready to go, and I refused to dance for the reason that Herr Von Holt had neglected to engage my hand for a set, and—"

"And," interrupted the gentleman, "you took exception at that when you knew that Von Holt did not enter the room until the waltzing had commenced. Do you want a man tied to your apron string, Bess?"

"No, father," answered the sweet tones, "I don't wish a man to be tied to me any way."

"I should judge not by the clever manner that you exhibit to my friends. Why do you reject every attention from Von Holt, when it is my desire you should accept them?"

"It is because I dislike him."

"And whom do you like? do you want a royal duke? Allow me to inform you, Elizabeth Conyngham, that a man of larger fortune, or better family connections, will never make advances to you."

"Oh, father," pleaded the voice, "let me stay at home with you. Why wish me to accept this gentleman, this foreigner, who is so unlike me, and who will surely make me unhappy? What is there in marriage that one should rush into it without even friendship? It does not confer happiness; we see that every day. How many married people do we know; even here at Brighton, I see them that are ill-mated and ready to be free of their yoke? Do you wish to condemn me to a similar fate? O, father, am I not a dutiful child, that you wish to be rid of me?"

"The deuce take the perversity of women," was muttered in reply. Somebody immediately slammed the door and the conversation ceased. I said the voice had piqued my curiosity, and no sooner was it silenced than I felt an overwhelming desire to see the owner of it. How could I accomplish the object? There was the ventilator, a broad aperture through which I could have leaped if necessary—why not make use of that? I softly moved a large chair across the room, and placing it beneath the opening in the wall, I stepped into it. I now confess, looking back upon that time, that for a person of my years and dignity the act was contemptible, but I am not ashamed to state that I never thought of the extreme delicacy and presumption of that step, or what might be its consequences. As I raised my head to the level of the sill, I saw hanging opposite to me, against the wall of the room I was about to reconnoitre, a large mirror, and from its clear surface reflected the image of a lady; I knew it was the owner of the voice; a slender fairy creature, reclining in a fauteuil, her head bent down upon her hands, and her whole attitude indicative of mental suffering. I did not see the face, but a cloud of curls floating over the neck and arms were the last insigna by which I knew I should recognize it. So long as I durst I preserved my position, but a slight movement of the curls started me and I sprang down.

Early that morning I took a station in the assembly rooms which commanded a view of the entrance, and after long and faithful watching, my patience was rewarded. The florid figure of Lady Grey appeared, and by her side was Miss Conyngham; a gentleman of dubious aspect accompanied them; a man with lightest hair and moustacher, and small eyes, the light of which was nearly extinguished beneath bushy eyebrows. I did not like the expression of those green eyes, it was furtive, and seemed constantly looking out for surprises; his manner was clearly that of a man of the world. I knew that it was Mr. Conyngham, and my eyes soon turned from him to the fair creature at his side. She wore a plain white dress, without other ornament than a branch of heather that fastened it to the throat; her countenance was pale and grave, and she stood in silent indifference, regarding the gay scene about her, so unlike the silly things that were fluttering their fans and arching their necks to show themselves off.

I drew near, and heard her refusing to dance with two or three young men, who had hurried to her on her entrance. I, too, looked around, with the hope of seeing some friend or acquaintance that could introduce me, and fortunately encountered the glance of Mr. Lovelace, a young gentleman whom I had well known in London. We shook hands, and after a few preliminaries, I inquired, who is this young lady with the beautiful hair?"

"That," he replied, "is Miss Conyngham; a fine looking girl, is she not? and of strong character, too. The old gentleman by her side whose face looks as if he had imbibed all the claret in the cellar, is her father, an old re-proubt; he wants to marry his daughter to a Dutchman, as old and ugly as himself, just because he is the owner of a few thousand miles of dykes, and a hemp manufactory. I would marry her myself—provided I could—to save her from such a fate, if I had the money to pay the person."

"Who is the tall lady?"

"That is Lady Gray, a sister of the young lady's mother; I will ask permission to introduce you," and before my heart had made ten strokes, I found myself conversing with them. Lady Gray I discovered at once to be a true English gentlewoman; she conversed well, and on many topics, sprinkling all her talk, however, with certain quality phrases that served to convince me that a stratum of hauteur underlaid the affability. Miss Conyngham was herself I have never seen another like her. Clear and honest was the ray that shot from her deep eyes. She made no effort at display or effect, but talked on in answer to my questions, and proposed her own with a combination of suavity and dignity that she would have worn if I had been her brother. I asked her to dance.

"No," she answered, "she did not dance that evening." She gave no excuse, but her eyes looked cloudy a moment after, when a phlegmatic gentleman, with a sinister lip, came up with a similar request. She declined it, mentioning the gentleman's name to me by way of introduction, as she did so. It was Herr Von Holt. He looked suspiciously at me; I think he thought me a rival. I stayed by her, however, saving her as far as possible from his odious talk and amorous glances by interposing myself between them; an officiousness for which she seemed to thank me.

He at length walked around to the place where Mr. Conyngham was standing. Lady Grey was talking with Dr. Scandinavius, the great Doctor of Laws, and I was at last vis-a-vis with Miss Bess. I improved the opportunity. Soon, however, Mr. Conyngham came and led his sister and daughter away. I followed there and then sought my own room, where I tried to remember the length of time I had been at Brighton—it seemed like two months, so much of hope and fear had been crowded into the limits of a day. I had forgotten my illness, and business seemed a subject I had been acquainted with in some former phase of existence.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE NOVA SCOTIAN.

FASTNET POINT, Aug 27—9 P. M.

The steamship Nova Scotian, from Liverpool Aug 16th, via Londonderry on the eve of Aug. 17th, has passed this point bound for Quebec.

The steamship Bremen, from New York, arrived at Southampton on the 15th.

LATEST VIA LONDONDERRY—London, Aug. 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Allgemeine Zeitung, of the 10th inst., says that the Pope has written a very melancholy letter to the Cardinal in France. He looks upon all as lost, and although convinced that he will die by the bullet of an assassin, he declares that he will quit Rome under no contingency and for no price.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 11th.

Advices from Damascus of the 14th ult., state that Faud Pacha had surrounded Lebanon with troops, and threatened with the sword the Druses and Shicks if they did not surrender in two days. 20 shicks had already been taken, and nearly 80 other important arrests made. A thousand camels, laden with plundered property, had also been recovered. The Sultan visited the Porte on Thursday, and delivered his speech to the ministers, expressing a resolution to punish the Syrian offenders most severely, and also an intention of re-doubling the list of timeserves and high functionaries, and of effecting reforms generally. Paper money to remain in circulation until July next.

The Sultan is about to address an autograph letter to Queen Victoria and Emperor Napoleon on the subject of Syria, in which he will express a desire to have the sole punishment of the offenders. The massacre of Talbera is confirmed.

The Times city article of Thursday evening, says disappointment in the expectations of a change in the weather and threatened political contingencies have led to a further decline in the English funds. American securities show great firmness, owing to the anticipation of an active business in breadstuffs.

Later from California.

ST. JOSEPH, August 27—9 P. M.

The Pony Express, with St. Louis dates to the 15th inst., arrived here last night.

The Pony Express, with St. Louis dates of July 31st, arrived at Carson Valley on the 11th inst.

Charles Doane has commenced suit in the U. S. District Court, against Charles Goodall, master of the steam tug Hercules, for $25,000. Capt Pearson, of the John L. Stephens, for $50,000, and Capt. Watkins, of the steamer Golden Gate, for $50,000 damages, growing out of his being forcibly carried away from California by order of the Vigilance Committee in 1856.

The San Francisco Herald has changed editors, and comes out for Breckinridge. It is now entirely owned and controlled by federal officials. A new Douglas Democratic daily, called the Nation, has been started in San Francisco. A Bell and Everett daily, called the Constitution, has also been started.

Politics is exciting in Oregon, but no new evidence to show the relative strength of parties. The Jacksonville Sentinel having come out for Breckinridge, a Douglas paper will be started in that strong democratic county. Reports from the Jacksonville quartz mills continue favorable. A fire occurred on the morning of the 13th inst., at Sacramento, destroying the Union Hotel and a number of adjoining buildings. Loss from $8,000 to $9,000.

From Pike's Peak.

ST. JOSEPH, Aug. 27—9 P. M.

The Pike's Peak Express arrived this morning with Denver dates up to the 21st. A subscription is being raised for extending the telegraph from Fort Kearney to Denver city, with a good prospect of obtaining the desired sum. The excitement is increasing in regard to the recently discovered silver leads near Tarryall and Breckinridge. The ore assays from $200 to $1700 to the ton — Thousands of claims have been taken and many are stampeding from the gold diggings to the silver mines.

California gulch continues to pay richly, and in McNulty's, Georgia and Humbug gulches, miners are realizing all sums from nothing to $50 to the man.

The weather is cold in the southern mines, and there has been a light fall of snow in the Gregory Diggings.

Some owners discouraged in quartz mills, are selling out at below cost; but the general feeling is one of increasing confidence, and there is a steady increase of success in separating the gold.

In this city, business is reviving, many of the merchants are starting for the river to purchase their winter stock. Some disappointed emigrants are also going.

From 40,000 to 50,000 dollars in dust, per week, is leaving for the River—mostly in private hands; and Clark, Gruber & Co are receiving and coining about 2,000 dollars per day. Many substantial brick buildings are going up.

From the Plains.

INDEPENDENCE, Aug. 27—9 P. M.

The Santa Fe mail with dates to the 14th, arrived to-day.

The 5th infantry, from Utah, arrived there on the 11th, and their arrival somewhat renewed business, which was very dull. The troops are en route for Fort Defiance.

The Indians are still hostile, but no outbreak of consequence.

Six hundred troops were met at Iron Creek going to Fort Union, also a large number of the Arkansas rives going to Big Timbers.

The report of the death of Mr. Bent is contradicted.

Safe Arrival of a Wagon Road Expedition.

LEAVENWORTH, Aug. 27—9 P. M.

The Times of this city has intelligence of the safe arrival at Colorado City, of the Smoky Hill wagon road expedition. They have constructed a good wagon road from Fort Riley to Denver City and Colorado.

The party lost one man in a skirmish with a party of Kiowas.

Great rejoicing is manifested here over the final success of the expedition and opening of the road.

Excitement at Nauvoo, Ill.

St Louis, Aug 27—9 P. M.

Considerable excitement exists in Hancock county, Ill., relative to a rumor that the Mormons intend returning and settling at Nauvoo, under the head of Prophet (?) Joe Smith, Jr. A mass meeting of citizens was held on the 21st at Carthage, who protests against such a movement on the part of the Mormons, and declared that they would not allow them to return.

Douglas in Virginia.

PETERSBURG, Aug. 27—9 P. M.

Mr. Douglas arrived here this evening from Norfolk, and was enthusiastically received by 3,000 or 4,000 people, who, headed by a band of music, was escorted to Jarrett's Hotel. A salute of 100 guns was fired in his honor.

Suicide.

INDEPENDENCE, Aug. 27—9 P. M.

A young man named Edward Ruff committed suicide here Saturday, by shooting himself with a shot gun. He has a father in New York and a brother in Covington, Ky.

The Prince of Wales.

BOSTON, Aug. 27—3 P. M.

Mayor Lincoln has letters from the Duke of Newcastle, stating that the Prince will visit Boston, but is unable to indicate the precise time.

MONETARY.

MONDAY P. M., August 27, 1860.

Exchange steady at ¼ @ cent premium, selling. Currency plenty, the banks discounting all the offerings of good business paper at the usual rate.

CHICAGO MONEY MARKET.—The Press & Tribune of this morning has the following:

The light shipments of produce during the past few days has checked the supply of Eastern bills very materially, and the market for Eastern exchange continues firm. The bankers are still selling at ¼ @ cent premium, and paying ¼ @ cent; but sales on the street were generally at ¼@¾ @ cent.

Currency is in good supply, while the demand is rather more limited.

NEW YORK MONEY MATTERS.—We have the following by telegraph from New York to-day, in reference to money and stocks:

Money is in fair demand on call at 6 @ cent., with good supply offering. Exchange quiet and nominal. Stocks dull and lower: C & R I 93¾; C B & Q 59¾; C C & C 94½; I C scrip 86¾; M & M 145; C & T 46¾; C & P 12½; Read 45¾; D & H 94½; Penn Cs 90¾; Mo 81¾; N Y C 96; Cal Cs 91; M S 1st bds 88c, do 2d do 66¾.

EXPORTS BY LAKE.

Wheat, bus 44,000

The wheat market was not very active to-day, but to better prices were paid than the ruling figures on Saturday. Sales reported foot up about 15,000 bus at 59@60c for No. 1 spring, in store and delivered; 57½@ for No. 2 in store; 61@63c for Club, and 9 @ 95c for Extra delivered. In the afternoon there was nothing done that we could hear of, sellers holding at 60c for No. 1 in store, and buyers refusing to go above the opening prices. Receipts, it will be seen, are 32,562 bus, and shipments 44,000 bus.

In flour, the only transactions were a couple of sales at $4,87@4,75 for common to good Extra.

Coarse grains were quiet and without material change.

The tendency of freights still continues downward. Shippers will not talk of higher rates than 10@11c for wheat to Buffalo, and 17c to Oswego. Two vessels were chartered, but the terms did not transpire.

The Lake and Railroad rates on flour are now alike, as follows:

To New York by Lake and Rail	$1,00 ₱ bbl;
To Boston do do	1,15 do
To Ogdensburgh, do	50 do
To Buffalo, do do	40 do

The rates by rail include insurance; by water, insurance to be added.

Comparative Prices of Wheat at Milwaukee and Chicago.

The following statement exhibits the comparative prices of spring wheat in the Milwaukee and Chicago markets during last week:

	At Milwaukee.		At Chicago.
	No. 1.	No. 2.	No. 1.	No. 2.
Monday	59@60c	58	75@75	70@73c
Tuesday	58	57@58	75@77	72@75
Wednesday	57@58	55@57	72@75	70@73c
Thursday	58@59	57	76@79	74@76½c
Friday	58@59	57	78@82½	74@78c
Saturday	59@60	58	81@82½	79@81

For about a week after the new spring wheat commenced coming in, it will be remembered that prices ruled 2@3c higher at Chicago than here, but since then the Milwaukee Market has steadily maintained the ascendancy, as it doubtless will continue to do throughout the season, the quality of wheat seeking our market being much superior to the great bulk of the wheat received at Chicago, although the inspection at both cities is nominally governed by the same standards.

CHOICE CLUB WHEAT.—A car load of very superior Club wheat from Ripon, was sold by Messrs. ELLIOT & HOLMES to-day to the proprietor of the Upper Mill, at the round price of $1 ₱ bus. The wheat in that section this season is represented as never having been equalled before, either in yield or quality.

CHICAGO MARKET, AUGUST 25TH.—The following shows the receipts of flour and grain at Chicago, on Saturday:

In reference to the market the Press & Tribune says:

The receipts of produce to-day were light, and there was less activity in the grain market in consequence.

Wheat opened firm and becoming buoyant an advance of 1c was gained over yesterday's outside quotations—the market, however, closing rather tame, with sellers for next week asking the 1@2c below to-day's ruling figures. About 125,000 bus were sold at 81@83c for No. 1 spring; 70@81c for No. 2 do, and 72@76c for rejected de—closing at about the inside quotations. About 30,000 bus were also sold for delivery next week at sellers option, at 77@79c for No. 2 in store. Winter wheat very quiet but firm. Sales very light, at 95@98c for No. 1 red; 87@89c for No. 2 do; 90c for No. 2 white and 75c for rejected. The offerings of flour were not large; and as there is not much prospect for shipping accommodations for two or three days, buyers held off, and the market was inactive—with limited transactions at $4,20@4,30 for fair to good spring extras. Corn opened buoyant, and an advance of 2c was gained; but less encouraging news from New York caused a slight reaction, and the market closed quiet, with sales of about 100,000 bus at 45c for river and 46c afloat; 38½c for No. 2 canal afloat; 37@39c for No. 1; 36@37c for No. 2; and 34c for rejected. Oats were in better request and we note a further improvement of ½c, with sales at 20½c afloat, and 19@19½c in store. Rye quiet at 47c in store. Barley is more active, No. 2 selling in bulk at 52c, and No. 2 in store at 49c. Timothy seed active and a shade lower—sales very large at $2@2,25. There is a good shipping inquiry for butter and the market is firmer.

The less favorable the shipping and vessel owners was fairly broken to-day, and eight vessels and propellers were engaged at 10@11c for wheat to Buffalo, and ½c for corn to Port Sarnia.

ALBANY MARKET, AUGUST 24TH—From the Journal.—FLOUR AND MEAL.—There is a fair trade demand for flour and a good business doing at previous prices. Corn meal unchanged.

GRAIN.—The supply of wheat is small and the market is steady. Sales 850 bus choice white Michigan on p. t. For corn the demand is more active and the market firmer. Sales 14,000 bus western mixed at 59@ 59½, the latter figure for small parcels. Rye lower, with sales 1,800 bus at 78. Oats are being held more firmly, but the market is quiet. Sales 2,000 bus State at 35.

WHISKEY.—The supply is light and the market is firmer with a fair demand. Sales 50 bbls Prison at 20½.

THE CROPS AT HOME AND ABROAD.—The accounts of the crops in England are all of the most discouraging character. A private letter from high authority, by the last steamer, says:

"The weather is very wet and cold, and, so far as I can learn, not a blade of corn of any kind has yet been cut, and besides this, the potatoes, within the last week, have severely deteriorated. I have just heard of a man in my neighborhood offering to sell the potatoes on one hundred acres for the crop, and I have not three bushels of sound in every twelve. A week ago they looked magnificently. We must import food largely from somewhere. Accounts from Germany are just as bad, and throughout Central Europe."

We learn, also, that English orders for American produce were triplicated, in some instances, by the last mail.—N. Y. Evening Post.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

DETROIT AND MILWAUKEE RAILWAY.

The Detroit and Milwaukee Railway Company are making active preparations for the Fall and Winter freight business. They are putting up a large addition to their warehouse, which will also give them 75 feet more dock room than they have heretofore had, and we understand that the Superintendent is negotiating for a propeller, to be put on the route early next month, as there will doubtless by that time be more freight to carry than the steamships can take care of, and make their regular connections. Already the westward freight business of the route is rapidly increasing, and considerable quantities of flour and produce begin to go forward, their rates being as low as those of the lake routes.

A new feature in the transportation business which the Detroit and Milwaukee Railway Co. have inaugurated, is that of carrying wheat through by rail to New York, the present high lake freights enabling them to bid for a share of that traffic. The wheat is put up in barrels or bags, and this process necessarily restricts the shipments by this route to the choicer qualities. Several thousand bushels were shipped last week, part going through all the way by rail, and part by rail to Detroit and thence by Lake Erie to Buffalo. The present rates on wheat by this route are:

By all rail to New York	50c ₱ 100 lbs.
By rail and Lake Erie to New York	43c ₱ 100 lbs.

These rates are equivalent to 80c ₱ bus, all rail, and about 25c via Lake Erie—the latter being actually less than the water rate, omitting the additional cost of barrels, because they will be worth nearly as much as new for flour, if not unnecessarily disfigured, after carrying the wheat. We have no doubt but that this new feature in the carrying trade will prove a source of considerable profit to the Detroit and Milwaukee Railway between now and Spring, especially so should good prices for wheat prevail at the East, the coming Fall and Winter.

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY.

The New York Herald has received an advance copy of the first annual report of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company. The Company took possession of the road in June last; and the report sets forth that it has cost them as follows:

Sinking fund bonds (preferred)	$1,250,000
First mortgage do	3,6.0,000
Second do do	2,000,000
Mortgage bonds on real estate	410,324
Stock	9,000,000
Funding debt	76,000
Total cost of road	$20,314,803

To this amount, however, should be added $1,500,000 or $1,750,000 in stock, which may be issued to pay off some claims of the old Company which are yet unsettled, and to be given in exchange for the old Company's stock. The earnings of the road from June 23, 1859, to April 1st, 1860, when the Company's year ended, were as follows:

Earnings for ten months	$484,309
Expenses of all kinds	244,487
Net income for ten months	$239,822
And earnings of April and May	115,200
Expenses per cent	67,800
Net income for April and May	45 200
Net income for the year	$185,022
Amount of interests due on bonds	391,250
Deficit	$206,228

MILWAUKEE AND MISSISSIPPI RAILROAD.

The N. Y. Tribune of Friday last contains the following announcement:

The stock and bondholders of the Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. Co. held a meeting to-day, and unanimously assented to the proposition of extending the first coupons of said Company's bonds. Another meeting is called for to-morrow to elect trustees and carry out in all its details the reorganization scheme.

THE COST OF CUTTING RATES.

The cost to railway shareholders, of "cutting rates," as has been the practice during the long period of dullness in railway traffic, is practically shown by the last annual report of the Cleveland and Toledo Railroad Company:

The table of through and way freight show a sliding scale as follows: In 1855 the average amount received from each ton of freight was 83,75-100, and from that generally to April 30, 1860, the reduction was followed from year to year, until at the date mentioned it had reached the minimum of $1,53 56100 ₱ ton, or less than one-half the rate received in 1855, and less by 61 cents ₱ ton than it received in 1856. The average distance which each ton was carried during this time was in 1855, 45 1-10 miles, and in 1859, 38 miles; but in 1860, it had reached an average movement of 87 4-10 miles. The reduction received by 2d which followed from year to year, until at the date mentioned it had reached the minimum of $1,53 56100 ₱ ton, or less than one-half the rate received in 1855, and less by 61 cents ₱ ton than it received in 1856. The average distance which each ton was carried during this time was in 1855, 45 1-10 miles, and in 1859, 38 miles; but in 1860, it had reached an average movement of 87 4-10 miles. The reduction received by 2d which followed during this period, from $ 38-100 in 1855, dwindled to 2 12-100 in 1859 and 1860, a difference of $ 26-100 ₱ ton ₱ mile. There is no stronger example of the difference between a period of activity and prosperity than is furnished by these railway statistics.

RAILROAD EARNINGS.

The following is a comparative statement of the earnings of some of the principal Railroads for the 2d week in August, 1859 and 1860:

RIVER NEWS.

From La Crosse.

River still falling—Movements of boats.

Special Correspondence of the Sentinel.

LA CROSSE, Wis. August 28, '60.

Steamer Frank Steele, La Crosse Line, left for St Paul Saturday evening on arrival of train from the East, with good trip of passengers and freight. Steamer Itasca, of Galena and Dunleith Line, passed down at 4:30 P. M. Sunday; detained on sand bars 14 hours behind time, and brought passengers for La Crosse Road. Steamer Golden Era (lately condemned,) and War Eagle, of same line, passed up a 10 o'clock P. M. Sunday. Steamer Fanny Harris (stern wheel,) of same line, arrived down from St. Paul at 4 A. M. to-day, with passengers for La Crosse Road. Steamer Winona, of La Crosse Line, left St. Paul Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Met steamers Key City, Golden Era and War Eagle, of Galena and Dunleith Line, aground and behind time from three to twelve hours; arrived at La Crosse on time, with good trip of freight and passengers. Steamer Favorite, of same line, had arrived at St. Paul on time before the Winona left. Weather fine; water falling. Steamer Henry Clay, of Northern Line Packet Company of St. Louis, passed up at 8 o'clock this morning, behind her usual time. Passengers that left Prairie du Chien on Thursday morning by City Belle, of Galena Line, arrived at St. Paul only six hours ahead of passengers that left Boston the same morning and went by way of La Crosse. SALE OF THE PROPELLER MARQUETTE TO THE N.Y. CENTRAL RAILROAD.

The Detroit Advertiser of Saturday announces the sale of the fine propeller Marquette by Dr. RUSSEL of that city, to DEAN RICHMOND, for the N. Y. C. R. R., on Friday, for the sum of $32,000. The Marquette is to be put on the Buffalo and Lake Michigan route.

LUMBER VESSELS IN THE GRAIN TRADE.

The Chicago Press & Tribune of to-day contains the following:

The schrs. Rand and Orion, of this port, lumber vessels, were fitted up here last week for the grain trade. The Orion sprung a leak before she left the harbor, and her cargo was taken out of her. The Rand, sailing alone three or four days since, put back on Saturday morning, leaking badly.

New and Important Arrangement.

To Shippers of Freight TO THE NORTH-WEST.

THE LA CROSSE & ST. PAUL UNITED STATES MAIL PACKET LINE

Running only between LA CROSSE & ST. PAUL for the transmission of Passengers, Freight and Mails.

THE PACKET LINE IS COMPOSED of the Steam Packets

Favorite, Frank Steele, Winona, and Aeolian,

Acknowledged to be the best boats for the trade upon the Upper Mississippi, being of lighter draft than any now running.

This Line carries the United States Mail, and has not missed a daily connection since it was established, with the trains, either way, upon the La Crosse & Milwaukee Railroad.

Shippers from Milwaukee will see that this is the most reliable Line of Boats for Freight, as the lightness of draft enables them to make their trip without delay, while by any other route delays are unavoidable.

One of the above Boats will leave La Crosse every evening, on the arrival of the 1:05 P. M. train from Milwaukee, and returning arrive at La Crosse in season to connect with the Express Passenger train, which leaves at 5 A. M.
